In spite of the confident tone of the remarks of Charlie White's backers, we can see nothing but defeat ahead for him in his battle with Willie Ritchie tonight in Milwaukee. The fact that White is a local man undoubtedly has something to do with the fixing of the odds, which make the champion a 10-to-7 favorite.

In other cities there is a steeper price on Ritchie.

White is a good fighter, make no mistake about that, and a defeat tonight will not lower his prestige one bit. All of the other leading lightweights have been up against the Ritchie game with dire results to themselves.

All arrangements have been made for handling a record crowd tonight. Special trains will leave at 5:45 and 6:10 over the Northwestern and 6:10 on the C. M. & St. P. The trains will return half an hour after the fight is over.

Ritchie is getting a guarantee of $10,000, with the privilege of taking 45 per cent of the gate receipts. White is to receive 22½ per cent of the gate.

Cheney and Bresnahan Foil Giants— Sox and Feds Both Win.

In the first game of the Giant-Cub series yesterday the studious fan had an opportunity of seeing the best bit of battery work ever turned in by a West Side pitcher and catcher.

Whole reams of stuff have been written about wonderfully pitched world's series games, and columns have been slopped out over great hurling feats in games which decided pennants, but never was there better collaboration than that of Cheney and Bresnahan yesterday.

Bresnahan, familiar from long experience with the weaknesses of the
